ADAM A BLACK MAN SAYS COLORED DIVINE

Senior Bishop of African Methodist Church Declares God Never Made a White Man.

HICAGO, May 18.- "God never made a white man. In the beginning all men were black, but in their wanderings on the earth many of them have become bleached. And in the unnatural pallor many of these bleached men, all of whom were made black in the beginning, look with contempt and indifference-often with prejudice and hate-upon their brothers the negroes, who have retained the color that God

Such was the declaration of the Rev. H. M. Turner, senior bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal church, in an address in Quinn shapel before one of the sessions of the church's annual conference. The chapel was packed with negroes who are leaders in the religious work of their race, and all arrelayded work of their race, and all applauded almost wildly.

"What we negroes need is more edu-cation," continued Bishop Turner. "We need not only the various schools now under control of our church, but we need proper instruction imparted. We should write books of our own, poems of our own, scientific treaties of our own, poems of our own, scientific treaties of our own, in harmony with our color and our race. And don't learn songs like 'Wash Me and I Shall be Whiter than Snow'—a song that I would not tolerate sung in my presence.

"I do not want to be misunderstood, though, and I will say to the credit of the white man—whose race is at the same time the meanest I ever saw and the best—that wherever our race tries to rise, as a general rule, he will help

MOTHER OF SCIENTISTS INTERPRETS THE LAW

Mrs. Eddy Says Members of Her Church Can Retain Membership in Other Societies.

OSTON, May 18.-Mary Baker G. Eddy, paster emeritus of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, who framed the recent by-law on organizations adopted by the church, has given to the Christian Science Journal the following explanation of

"I beg to inform my beloved members of the mother church that the by-law in article XXVI. of its manual, does not require members of benevolent and progressive organizations such as the Free Masons, Odd Fellows, temperance societies and those of similar cult, to resign this membership. It specifies in plain English that individuals who become members of our church shall not come members of our church shall not thereafter be made members of clubs or other organizations not named in its manual, and wherefore? Because our religious denomination demands the faithful attention and labor of its mem-bers in all philanthropic, therapeutic and progressive Christian work for the human race and relies upon the ade-quate, scientific source and resource therefor.

EIGHT-HOUR LAW IS ON TRIAL

Penitentiary Employee Wants Extra Pay for Time Put in Over the Eight-Hour Limit.

F MORE than ordinary importance are the questions involved in the case brought by C. L. Schettler against the Board of Corrections of the State prison, which was submitted to a fury in Judge Stewart's court last evening with instructions to return a sealed verdict at 10 o'clock this morning. Schettler, who was employed as a guard at the penitentiary, brought the action to recover $168.75 alleged to be due for overtime worked.

The suit practically involves an it terpretation of the act making the eight-hour day. Schettier claims that he wbrked as a guard from March 21 to July 16, 1903, and that during that period he worked $43 days overtime. Attorney-General M. A. Breeden, who is looking after the interests of the State in the case, contends that the eight-hour law has in no way been violated by the prison officials. When the law went into effect, he says, the guards were told that they would be paid the same compensation that they had been receiving for the twelve-hour. had been receiving for the tweive-hour bad, but that they would be expected to remain at the penetentiary every night as a reserve in case of emergency. plaintiff was represented in the suit by the legal firm of C. GERBER ON TRIAL ON SERIOUS CHARGE

With bowed head and tear-stained face concealed behind her hat brim, Annie Estell occupied the witness chair in the criminal division of the District court, where A. E. Gerber, her alleged assailant, is being tried for felony, for several hours yesterday afternoon. The witness is a slip of a girl of 17 years and was apparently so nervous and confused that it was only with great difficulty that satisfactory and intelligent answers were received to the attorney's questions. Not once while or the witness stand was she seen to rais-her eyes from the floor. The case against Gerber has been ending for more than a year. He was charged with assaulting a female under age, it being alleged that on March 2, 1903, he assaulted the girl, Annie Estell, and abused her. He was bound over the District court by Judge Diehl, prosecuted by District Attorney Benner X. Smith and the defendant is rep-resented by the firm of Harrington & Sanford. An unusual amount of interest is being taken in the case and the courtroom was partly filled all after-noon with women spectators.

Gerber is the young man who created quite a sensation during the murder trial of Clyde Ellison, when he arose in the witness chair and striking his fist on the stand, yelled: "Yes, but it is a lie!" in answer to a question by the district attorney who asked him if it were not true that he was charged with a felony for which he is now being tried.

In the Supreme Court.

In the Supreme court yesterday the following cases were argued and subfollowing cases were argued and submitted: Dennis O. Smyth, appellant, vs.
Charles R. Reed, et al., by W. L. Maginnis and J. N. Kimball for appellant and John A. Street in reply; Joseph Fares vs. Rio Grande Western Railroad company, appellant, by E. M. Allison appellant and by O. W. Powers in reply; S. H. Moyes, guardian, vs. Ogden Sewer Pipe & Clay company, appellant, by C. S. Varian for appellant and by H. R. MacMillan in reply. The pellant, by C. S. Varian for appellant and by H. R. MacMillan in reply. The case of Samuel McIntyre, appellant, vs. Ajax Mining company, was set for hearing on June 6.

Court Notes.

In the foreclosure sult brought by Carrie Cain against George Marrow, et al., Judge Hall yesterday rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $8149, with interest and for $1090 attorneys' fees. The property foreclosed consists of a part of lot 8, block 88, plat A, and a part of lot 1, block 59, plat B. Thomas Brown was yesterday found guilty of the crime of burglary by a jury in the criminal division of the Dis-trict court. The defendant, who was charged with burglarizing the store of C. C. Crape at Sandy, was tried Tues-day. The case was completed with the exception of making the closing arguments which were made yesterday morning. The jury was out but a few minutes before reaching a verdict. Time for passing sentence upon the prisoner was fixed by the court for Saturday morning, May 21.
